ESU/ESUT/EULIS Hands-on training in Ureterorenoscopy

HOT 29

Location: Session Room

Aims and objectives of this presentation

Ureteroscopy is an essential tool in the management of stone disease for all Endourologists. This course will provide Hands-on Training with tutor guided practical tips and tricks of doing ureteroscopy. Participants will get a chance to perform Semirigid and Flexible ureteroscopy in the models with a chance to navigate the pelvicalyceal system, stone manipulation and extraction.

Aims and objectives

• At the end of the course, the participants will be able to perform rigid and flexible ureteroscopy in the models
• The participants will be able to interact with tutors and gain valuable insights into the tips and tricks of basic and advanced ureteroscopy